14. Describe how the employer intends to provide either 3 meals a day to each worker or furnish free and convenient cooking and kitchen facilities for workers to prepare meals / Describa cómo el empleador tiene la intención de ofrecer, ya sea 3 comidas al día a cada trabajador, o proporcionar gratuitamente instalaciones para cocinar.

Employers will furnish free cooking and kitchen facilities to those workers who are entitled to live in the employers' housing so that workers may prepare their own meals. Workers will buy their own groceries. Once a week the employers will offer to provide (on a voluntary basis by the workers) free transportation to assure workers access to the closest store where they can purchase groceries.

Housing is provided at no cost to workers who are not reasonably able to return the same day to their place of residence. This paragraph applies to such workers only. Housing is not provided to non-workers. Housing capacity is strictly regulated by the US Department of Labor, and no person, other than the eligible employees authorized by the employer, may occupy or remain overnight in employer-provided housing. Employer-provided housing must meet the full set of DOL Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) standards set forth at 29 CFR 1910.142, or the full set of standards set at §§ 654.404 through 654.417, whichever are applicable under § 654.401. The housing is offered as temporary in-season (during the employment period only) housing provided for migrant agricultural workers while they are employed at farms beyond normal commuting distance from their residence. Workers provided housing by the employer must promptly vacate the housing upon termination of employment. No charge will be made for beds or cooking utensils and similar items furnished to workers to whom housing is provided. All housing is group housing in which all workers will share kitchens and common areas without regard to gender. Female workers, however, will be provided with sleeping facilities shared only with other family members or with other females. Sex-segregated toilets facilities will be provided. Workers who reside in such housing agree to be responsible for maintaining the housing in a neat and clean manner. Workers residing in employer's housing may have mail directed to them at the employer's address on attached addendum.

Assurances

INTRASTATE AND INTERSTATE CLEARANCE ORDER

The employer agrees to provide to workers referred through the clearance system the number of hours of work per week cited in Item 10 of the clearance order for the week beginning with the anticipated date of need, unless the employer has amended the date of need at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need by so notifying the Order-Holding Office (OHO). If the employer fails to notify the OHO at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need, the employer shall pay eligible workers referred through the intrastate/interstate clearance system the specified hourly rate or pay, or in the absence of a specified hourly rate or pay, the higher of the Federal or State minimum wage rate for the first week starting with the original anticipated date of need. The employer may require workers to perform alternative work if the guarantee is invoked and if such alternative work is stated on the job order.

The employer agrees that no extension of employment beyond the period of employment shown on the job order will relieve the employer from paying the wages already earned, or specified in the job order as a term of employment, providing transportation or paying transportation expenses to the worker's home.

The employer assures that all working conditions comply with applicable Federal and State minimum wage, child labor, social security, health and safety, farm labor contractor registration and other employment-related laws.

The employer agrees to expeditiously notify the OHO or State agency by telephone immediately upon learning that a crop is maturing earlier or later, or that weather conditions, over recruitment, or other factors have changed the terms and conditions of employment.

The employer, if acting as a farm labor contractor, has a valid farm labor contractor registration certificate.

The employer assures the availability of no cost or public housing which meets applicable Federal and State standards and which is sufficient to house the specified number of workers requested through the clearance system.

The employer also assures that outreach workers shall have reasonable access to the workers in the conduct of outreach activities pursuant to 20 CFR 653.107.

ATTACHMENT TO ETA 790

Workers recruited under this Job Order are recruited to work on the employer's farm shown on the addendum in the certified occupation during the period of employment shown in Item 9. The employer/members will offer US workers at least the same opportunities, wages, benefits, and working conditions as those which the employer offers or intends to offer to non-immigrant foreign workers. *Use of the masculine pronoun herein is for convenience of reference only.

1. Name and address of employer: R.M Zingler Jr Farms; 1479 Kendall Rd, Kendall NY 14476.

9. Anticipated dates of employment: 02/29/2016 until 11/15/2016.

10. The number of workers show is the aggregate number of foreign workers that will be employed by the employer under this temporary employment certification. The approximate maximum number of workers (foreign and domestic) to be employed in the certified occupation is shown on the addendum. The numbers shown are approximations provided for the governing administrative agencies. The actual number of workers employed in the certified job opportunities of the grower at any given time may be more or less than the approximate numbers shown in the addendum, depending upon crop conditions, weather, markets or other circumstances that develop during the season.

11. Anticipated Hours of Work: Worker will report to work at the designated time and place as directed by the Grower each day. The standard workweek is 7 hours per day Monday- Friday, and 5 hours on Saturday is normal; however, workers may be requested to work 12+ hours per day depending upon the conditions in the fields and maturity of the crops but will not be required to do so. Also, the workers may be requested to work on federal holidays and on their Sabbath but will not be required to do so. Workers may volunteer to work additional hours when work is available. Down Time: Workers should expect occasional periods of little or no work because of weather, crop or other conditions beyond the employer's control. These periods can occur anytime throughout the season.

12. Starting and ending times will change due to weather and crop conditions. During certain times of the season workers may be required to work at night. Workers will be given as much notice as possible when changing shifts are required.

If a worker is offered and agrees to work more than the scheduled hours during the workweek, they must still report to work on their other scheduled days, unless arrangements are approved in advance with the owner or supervisor. Choosing to work longer hours during the week does not exclude you from working each scheduled work day. Not reporting for work on your scheduled work day will be counted as an unexcused absence.

14. Employers will furnish free cooking and kitchen facilities to those workers who are entitled to live in the employers' housing so that workers may prepare their own meals. Workers will buy their own groceries. Once a week the employers will offer to provide (on a voluntary basis by the workers) free transportation to assure workers access to the closest store where they can purchase groceries.

Free family housing is not available and it is not a prevailing practice in the area of intended employment to provide family housing to temporary or seasonal farmworkers. Housing is provided at no cost to workers who are not reasonably able to return the same day to their place of residence. This paragraph applies to such workers only. Housing is not provided to non-workers. Housing capacity is strictly regulated by the US Department of Labor, and no person, other than the eligible employees authorized by the employer, may occupy or remain overnight in employer-provided housing. The housing is offered as temporary in-season (during the employment period only) housing provided for migrant agricultural workers while they are employed at farms beyond normal commuting distance from their residence. Workers provided housing by the employer must promptly vacate the housing upon termination of employment. No charge will be made for beds or cooking utensils and similar items furnished to workers to whom housing is provided hereunder. All housing is group housing in which all workers will share kitchens and common areas without regard to gender. Female workers, however, will be provided with sleeping facilities shared only with other family members or with other females. Sex-segregated toilets facilities will be provided. Workers who reside in such housing agree to be responsible for maintaining the housing in a neat and clean manner. Workers residing in employer's housing may have mail directed to them at the employer's address on attached addendum. Employer-provided housing will meet the full set of DOL Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) standards set forth at 29 CFR 1910.142, or the full set of standards set at §§ 654.404 through 654.417, whichever are applicable under § 654.401. Workers may be terminated for willful destruction of housing.

15. Employers will accept applications from any source. Interested candidates should first contact their local State Workforce Office. Interested candidates are to review the terms, conditions and nature of employment as shown on the ETA 790 and its corresponding attachments. Candidates who may legally work in the United States, and have a copy of the job should call Rudy Zingler at (585) 659-4019 Monday – Thursdays between the hours of 8:00am and 3:00 pm to schedule an interview. NO APPLICANTS ARE TO JUST SHOW UP WITHOUT A SCHEDULED INTERVIEW. Workers should be fully apprised by the local employment office of the terms, conditions and nature of employment prior to referral. This will enable applicants to review all the information and make an informed decision about the job and will ensure compliance with disclosure requirements. Interstate (out of state) and Intrastate (in state) candidates will be interviewed over the phone once employer has received written confirmation that all required disclosures have been made. Completing an application is part of the interview process.

Workers are screened for compliance with the following criteria: a) confirm ability, availability, qualifications and willingness to perform work described and confirm intention to work the entire season, 2) local workers confirm availability of reliable daily transportation to and from the job site for the entire season. Non local workers confirm availability of transportation to job site to begin work, 3) confirmation of full disclosure of all terms, condition, and nature of work-job by local employment staff, 4) affirmative confirmation of legal qualifications to work in the US as described below. The employer may terminate the worker (foreign and/or domestic) with notification to the employment service if employer discovers a criminal conviction record or status as a registered sex offender that employer reasonably believes, consistent with current law, will impair the safety and living conditions of other workers.

Only workers legally entitled to work in the United States and who possess original identity and employment eligibility documents sufficient to complete INS Form I-9, as required by the Immigration and Nationality Act, will be permitted to complete the hiring process. Workers referred against this order should be informed that they must have these documents in their possession when they arrive at the place of employment. Provided that workers complete section 1 of form I-9, workers will have three business days to produce the required documentation to complete section 2 of form I-9, as provided in the Act. Workers not providing this documentation will not be allowed to go to work on the fourth business day of employment, or any subsequent days until the documentation is provided, as provided in the Act.

16. All workers should have at least 3 months verifiable experience operating 50+HP farm equipment. Applicants must be able to furnish affirmative job references from recent employers operating comparable operations establishing acceptable previous experience.

Worker must possess requisite physical strength and endurance to repeat the harvest process throughout the workday, working quickly and skillfully to perform activities for which they were hired. Workers must work at a sustained, vigorous pace and make bona fide efforts to work efficiently and consistently that are reasonable under the climatic and other working conditions. Workers may not leave trash, or other discarded items in work areas or vehicles but must dispose of such items in provided receptacles. Workers must wash hands with soap and water after all bathroom and meal breaks. Allergies to varieties of ragweed, goldenrod, insecticides, related agricultural chemicals, etc, may affect workers ability to perform the work described herein. Workers should be physically able to do the work described with or without reasonable accommodation. Must display the ability to move, place, climb and work from orchard ladders up to 16 feet in height, making the necessary adjustments for various procedures while carrying up to 30 pounds.

Sanitation Requirements: For food and general personal safety purposes, all workers will be required and expected to follow common sanitary practices at all times. This is particularly critical when hand harvesting crops for human consumption. Employees are required to cleanse their hands by washing them thoroughly with soap and water after using the bathroom and before entering the fields for harvest activities or the packing facility for packing operations.

Apples: Workers will perform various tasks involved in planting, cultivation (including pruning and thinning) and harvesting fruit according to supervisor's instructions. Workers may till soil, plant stock, and do pruning activities using a variety of tools. May aid in irrigation duties. May aid in minor repair of wooden fruit containers. Workers will harvest fruit according to color, size, and degree of maturity as specified by supervisor and place into ¾ bushel baskets taking the extra time, care and effort not to bruise or scar the fruit.

The following description of job activities applies to apples and peaches.

Harvest: Workers will be assigned a row usually with a partner and is responsible for picking all the proper fruit from that row, or half row. Fruit is selected from the tree according to size and/or color standard set by the picking supervisor. In some instances, fruit harvest will be done from an 8 or 16 foot ladder weighing up to 30 lbs. All workers must be able to lift and carry ladder, as well as work from the top of the ladder. The entire tree must be checked to ensure removal of all fruit meeting-picking requirements. Fruit is placed gently in the picking container until container is full. The full picking container weighing up to 50 lbs. is then gently emptied into a field bin, taking care not to spill or bruise the fruit in the container or in the field bin. Field bin volume may be checked and determined by weight on state certified scales. Workers are required to stay on their assigned row unless directed by a supervisor to change, or to help someone sporadically. Picking units will be kept free of limbs, leaves or mushy fruit. Workers will be required to pick up and return picking ladders to the ladder wagon provided by the grower at the end of each work day or as directed by the grower or designated supervisor.

Pruning: While pruning trees, workers will receive the proper tools for the particular job, i.e., saw, pruners and hand snips. The tools will be returned to the employer at the end of the task. The supervisor will set a standard or pattern for each orchard and will demonstrate and communicate this to workers. Workers will be assigned a row of trees and must prune each tree according to the predetermined standard. In some instances pruning will be done from an 8 or 16 foot ladder weighing up to 30 lbs. All workers must be able to lift and carry ladder, as well as work from the top of the ladder. Workers must remove all resulting materials from the trees rendered from performing pruning tasks. When pruning is complete on each tree, each worker is required to rake and scatter the resulting brush in the center of the tractor/equipment middles. Workers will be required to pick up and return pruning ladders to the ladder wagon provided by the grower at the end of each day or as directed by the grower or designated supervisor.

Thinning: While thinning trees, workers will be instructed as to how close together fruit should be spaced and what fruit is most desirable to leave or take. The supervisor will set a standard or pattern for each orchard and will demonstrate and communicate this to workers. In some instances, thinning will be done from an 8 or 16 foot ladder weighing up to 30 lbs. All workers must be able to lift and carry ladder, as well as work from the top of the ladder. Rows will be assigned to each worker and it is the responsibility of the worker to complete the trees on the row according to the supervisor's instructions. Limbs must not be torn from the trees nor should limbs be completely stripped of leaves, blooms or fruit. Proper spacing and selection of fruit is critical to maximize the trees' potential yield. Thinner will thin fruit using hands and/or plastic bat to knock off excess fruit taking care to walk around the entire tree before moving to the next. Worker will be required to pick up and return ladders to the ladder wagon provided by the grower at the end of each day or as directed by the grower or designated supervisor.

Orchard Maintenance: Workers involved in orchard maintenance may be required to hoe trees, girdle, spread fertilizer, pick up roots and limbs, strip suckers or unwanted growth trees, dig root suckers, remove vines lay irrigation pipe, repair and maintain irrigation system, and strap and tie fruit trees. Employer will provide all equipment. Instructions will be given for each task and standards of performance communicated to workers. The specific standards for a job will be disclosed and demonstrated by the supervisor before the worker begins.

Packing operation: Workers <sup>will</sup> may perform various activities associated with packing produce harvested in the orchards. Workers <sup>will</sup> may be required to grade, fill, level, make boxes, and stack produce. Workers <sup>will</sup> may perform support jobs that include bin and pallet repair and after hours clean up. 11/16

Strawberries: Workers will help install black plastic and drip irrigation on rows in field being careful to cover all exposed edges of plastic cover with soil and be careful not to tear or punch holes in plastic. Workers may be asked to utilize implements associated with the installation of the plastic row covers incidental to performing required tasks on the ground. Workers will plant strawberry plants in pre-punched holes on the plastic covered rows being careful to place the strawberry plants at the same depth in the soil as they grew in the nursery. Workers will remove weeds from around the plants and from the row middles. Workers will bend and stoop to pick strawberries according to size, color, shape and degree of maturity and place into field containers. Workers will be expected to pick fully ripe strawberries, discard any cat-faced, deformed, decayed or undersized berries according to supervisor's instructions. Also, workers must carefully remove any undesirable berries from plant that would later cause fungi to attack the plant. Workers may carry full container weighing approximately six (6) lbs. and empty into field bin or load onto trailer. In some instances workers will be expected to fill a 4-quart/one gallon plastic pail carefully filling the pail to capacity. (Buckets must be full for correct measure and weight.) The pails will be carried in a 2-bucket carrier to be picked in. When full, carried to end of rows at designated truck-loading place. Then the buckets of berries will be inspected for quality and loaded for transportation to roadside market. Depending on market demand, workers may also be required to pick strawberries in cups, clamshells and/or flats. Strawberries harvested specifically for sale at a roadside stand as fresh market specially basket containers must be field graded. For berries harvested for sale at roadside stands, extra care must be used to ensure that each strawberry is undamaged and perfect. All berries must be handled carefully to prevent bruises or fingernail cuts. Pickers will take extreme care not to damage the delicate berries. Quality and workmanship is of the utmost importance. Pre-harvest activities for strawberries may include weeding and transplanting. Workers <sup>will</sup> may be required to perform other tasks maintenance activities in the strawberry operation. When harvest is completed, the workers will assist in removing the strawberry plants from the plastic to prepare for planting the next crop. In some instances workers may be required to remove the plastic and drip irrigation tape from the row and load on trucks for removal from field.

Tractor/Forklift Operation During Field Operations: Worker <sup>will</sup> may operate trucks, tractors, forklift, tractor-drawn machinery, and self-propelled machinery for land preparation, maintenance and cultivation, including to plow, harrow and fertilize soil and plants, and to plant, cultivate, and spray. Worker may operate equipment used in agricultural production, such as tractors and implements. Worker <sup>will</sup> may manipulate controls to set, activate, and adjust mechanisms on machinery. Worker <sup>will</sup> may attach farm implements such as plows, discs, sprayers, and harvesters to tractors, using bolts and hand tools. Worker <sup>will</sup> may load containers and products using forklifts. Worker <sup>will</sup> may operate grading and digging equipment. Worker <sup>will</sup> may perform preventive maintenance and troubleshooting repair on equipment. RGC

Farm, Field, and Shed Sanitation: All workers will be responsible for picking up trash, cleaning bathrooms, sweeping floors and other farm and shed sanitation duties. The farm owner/supervisor or a designated employee will provide specific instructions and close supervision. Workers will be expected to perform their duties in a timely and proficient manner and will have close supervision to insure adherence to instruction. Work will be closely monitored and reviewed for quality.

GENERAL CONDITIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL CROPS: Field work begins at assigned time usually shortly after daylight. Work environment will be dirty, dusty and damp, with temperature fluctuations according to the season. Work is performed during light rain and in high humidity and in temperatures ranging from 100+ degrees to below 35 degrees F. Workers must have multi-limb coordination ability while standing, walking and climbing for long periods while pruning and harvesting. Workers will work on their feet in bent position for long periods of time. Workers will supply their own work clothes Workers must be able to lift up to 75 lbs consistently throughout the day. Workers will make repetitive movements, extensive pushing, pulling, and walking. Workers may be required to perform work, on the farm, that is incidental to farming the crops listed in the application, such as performing hand cultivation tasks, weeding or hoeing, cleaning and repairing farm buildings, grounds, set up and move aluminum irrigation pipes and equipment, cleaning and maintaining drip irrigation systems, using backpack sprayers, gardening, weeding, shrubbing, etc. This is a very demanding and competitive business in which quality specifications must be rigorously adhered to. Sloppy work cannot and will not be tolerated.

Full Growing Season Commitment: The job offered requires that the worker be available for work seven hours per day Monday through Friday and five hours on Saturday every day that work is available for the full period of employment shown in Item 9, even though work may be slack for brief periods at any point during the season. The worker agrees to be available for work and perform the assigned work for the employer whenever work is available through the full period of employment. Work available is defined as, no work required on the worker Sabbath or federal holidays, but work is required seven hours per day Monday-Friday, and five hours on Saturday.

The worker understands that if he abandons his employment or is terminated for cause prior to the end of the period of employment shown in Item 9 he will forfeit the 3/4 guarantee and reimbursement of certain transportation costs described elsewhere in this job order. Excessive absences and/or tardiness, as defined in the Work Rules, cannot be tolerated and may result in termination.

Daily individual work assignments, crew assignments, and location of work, will be made by and at the sole discretion of the farm manager and/or farm supervisor as the needs of the farming operation dictate. Workers may be assigned a variety of duties in any given day and/or different tasks on different days. Workers will be expected to perform any of the listed duties and work on any crop as assigned by the worker's supervisor.

17. Wage Rates, Special Pay Information and Deductions: Harvesting specifications, in particular, can change from time to time during the season due to crop or market conditions, even on the same crop. Workers will be expected to conform to the specific instructions given for each day's work. Employer reserves the right to add a piece rate for any of the crops listed as an incentive to increase wages.

Instructions and general supervision will be provided by the farm owner/supervisor or a designated employee. However, field workers will be expected to perform their duties in a timely and proficient manner without close supervision.

The tasks in the crops listed below will be paid at the piece rates listed. All other work will be paid the adverse effect wage rate (AEWR) of $11.74 per hour. Employer will pay the highest of the AEWR, prevailing wage, the agreed-upon collective bargaining wage or the Federal or State minimum wage when the work is performed. In the event that the Department Of Labor promulgates a new AEWR applicable to any portion of the period of employment covered by this job order which is higher or lower than the AEWR herein, the employer will pay the higher AEWR, and may, at the employer's discretion pay the lower AEWR, beginning with the effective date of the new AEWR.

Workers are guaranteed that their total earnings will be at least equal to the AEWR of $11.74 per hour for all hours worked in a pay period. If a worker's total earnings in any pay period in which the worker has worked at a piece rate are less than the AEWR of $11.74 for all hours worked in the pay period, the employer will increase the worker's pay to the guaranteed minimum of $11.74 per hour for the total hours worked in the pay period.

Due to weather and crop conditions, the employer reserves the right to temporary increase the listed piece rates, or add a piece rate. The employer also reserves the right to completely do away with the piece rate all together to ensure a quality product and fair earnings.

Apple Harvest Type	Piece Rate/ Unit	Est. Hourly Earnings
Fresh Mkt-Dwarf	$.90 per 1 Bushel	$11.74
Fresh Mkt-Standard	$.90 per 1 Bushel	$11.74
Processing	$.65 per 1 Bushel	$11.74
Juice	$.60 per 1 Bushel	$11.74

18: More details concerning pay: All domestic and/or nonresident seasonal farm workers employed pursuant to this job order who satisfactorily completed the previous crop season may be compensated above the stated hourly wage rate. This is not promised or guaranteed. The decision to pay above the stated rates will be made by the employer, at their sole discretion, and will be based on factors including the recipients' performance and tenure.

A). The employer will make the following deductions from the Worker's wages: FICA taxes, Medicare, Local, State (if applicable) and Federal Income tax as required by law. Workers will be charged for the following: cash advances and repayment of loans, repayment of overpayment of wages to the worker, payment for articles which the Worker has voluntarily purchased from the Employer and any other charges expressly authorized by the Worker in writing. Deductions from pay may be made for payment of the workers portion for any employer-sponsored health care benefit that may be offered to the worker for the worker and the workers dependents that the worker chooses to purchase. The worker will not be required by the employer to purchase any health care benefit that may be offered and may choose to state in writing that the worker declines to purchase any such employer sponsored health care benefit. If the worker timely chooses to purchase any such health care benefit, at the time the worker states his or her desire to purchase such a health care benefit by completing and submitting any required written application any such health care benefit, the worker also will be required to authorize a once a month deduction from the workers' wages to pay for the workers portion of the monthly insurance premium. Such authorization by a worker for the employer to make a once a month deduction from wages, that is for the deduction to be made from wages paid on one payday per month, to pay the workers share of the health benefit premium must be made in writing and signed by the worker. The workers decision to decline or to accept the opportunity to purchase any health care benefit may be offered (including the workers authorization to the employer to continue deductions from wages for the workers share of each monthly premium as may be required by applicable law or by the insurance carrier or by both) will likely be irrevocable for the remainder of the benefit plan year for which the offer and acceptance are made, absent a "qualifying event" affecting the worker. Information concerning the amount that the worker must pay as the workers share of the premium cost in order to purchase a health care benefit will be provided in writing if such a plan is offered. Benefits offered under any health care plan, if offered, and other terms under which any such plan will be offered will be governed by the terms of any such health care plan, the requirements of any insurance company or third party administrator as well as by payroll administration requirements. No deduction not required by law will be made that brings the worker's hourly earnings below the statutory federal or state minimum wage. There may be deductions that reduce your pay below the stated contract wage; but will not reduce your pay below Federal or State Minimum Wage, whichever is higher. FICA, State and Federal taxes will not be deducted from those worker's wages that are working under a temporary, agricultural visa, unless it's discovered it is required or if the worker request withholding.

B) Employers guarantee to offer employment for the hourly equivalent of 3/4 of the workdays of the total specified period during which the work contract and all amendments thereof are in effect, beginning with the first workday after the workers' arrival at the assigned Grower's farm, ready, willing, able, and eligible to work and ending on the expiration date specified in the work contract and all extensions thereof or upon the termination of this employment as provided below. For purposes of this guarantee, a "workday" consists of seven hours Monday-Friday and five hours on Saturday. The worker is not required to work on his Sabbath or on federal holidays which are New Year's Day, January 1; Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, the third Monday in January; Presidents Day, the third Monday in February; Memorial Day, the last Monday in May; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day, the first Monday in September; Columbus Day, the second Monday in October; Veteran's Day, November 11; Thanksgiving Day, the fourth Thursday in November; and Christmas Day, December 25. On certain of these days, work may be available. If the worker at the conclusion of his work agreement has been afforded less employment opportunity than required under this provision, the worker will be paid at his average hourly rate for the hours, in addition to those actually offered, up to the hourly equivalent of the guaranteed number of days. In determining whether the guarantee of employment has been met, any hours which the Worker fails to work during a workday, when the Employer offers him the opportunity to work, and all hours of work actually performed shall be counted toward meeting this guarantee.

C). This employment guarantee shall be terminated before the end of the Period of Employment if the services of the workers are no longer required for reasons beyond the control of the Employer due to fire, frost, flood, drought, hail, other Act of God (AOG) which makes fulfillment of this contract impossible. (CO will be notified and employer will seek approval for AOG's) In such cases, the employer will make efforts to transfer worker to other comparable employment acceptable to worker. If such transfer is not effective, workers will be returned at Employer's expense to the place from which Worker, without intervening employment, came to work for employer. In the event of such termination, the 3/4-guarantee period ends on the date of termination. The guarantee shall be void from the beginning should the Worker voluntarily abandon this employment before the end of the contract period or in the event the Worker is terminated for a lawful job-related reason, and the employer notifies the NPC, and DHS in the case of an H-2A worker, in writing or by any other method specified by the Department or DHS in a manner specified in a notice published in the Federal Register not later than 2 working days after such abandonment occurs and this will relieve the employer from subsequent transportation and subsistence costs and the 3/4th guarantee.

D). The payroll period shall be weekly.

E). Employer will provide a worker referred through the SWA Interstate System forty (40) hours of work for the week beginning with the anticipated date of need, unless the employer has amended the date of need by notifying the local employment service office at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need. If the employer fails to notify the order-holding office, then employer shall pay an eligible worker referred through the interstate clearance system $11.74 per hour for the first week, starting with the original anticipated date of need.  $40 \text{ hrs} \times $11.74 = $469.60$  gross (before taxes). The employer may require the worker to perform alternative work if the guarantee cited in this section is invoked. If the worker fails to notify the order-holding office of his continuing interest in the job no sooner than nine working days and no later than five working days before the date of need, the worker will be disqualified from the above-mentioned assurance.

F). The Employer will furnish to the worker, on or before each payday one or more written statements showing the worker's total earnings for the pay period, his hourly rate or piece rate (if applicable); the hours of work which have been offered to the worker, the total hours actually worked by the worker, an itemization of all deductions made from the worker's wages; the worker's net pay; the employer's name, address and IRS identification number. Employer will abide by all regulations at 20 CFR 655.122(j)(k).

19. Transportation: The Employer will not advance transportation and subsistence costs to Workers for transportation to the place of employment.

This subparagraph applies only to Workers who cannot reasonably return to their residence the same day. After the workers has completed 50% of the work contract. All eligible applicants will have their inbound reasonable transportation expenses reimbursed, one time only. Domestic applicants from outside of the normal commuting distance that voluntary chose not to reside in the employer provided housing, the employer will pay for the initial inbound transportation reimbursement. However, the employer will not reimburse any workers for daily transportation cost whether commuting from inside or outside of the area of intended employment. Employer will not pay for voluntary trips back to their residence due to family emergencies, or vacations.

The amount of such transportation payment will be equal to the Worker's actual transportation costs not to exceed the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation charges for the distance involved. In lieu of the above payments to the workers for transportation, the employer reserves the right to charter or otherwise arrange to provide for transportation at the employer's election. Subsistence reimbursement shall be $11.86 per day, without producing documentation of actual expenses, or will otherwise be paid as per 20 CFR 655.122(h) only to those employees who are eligible under the H-2A program regulations for subsistence pay. Maximum Amount to be reimbursed with receipts is $46.00. By way of illustration and not in limitation of the foregoing, the employer will not pay transportation for such worker if he does not have suitable documents to comply with proof of identity and employment eligibility requirements of IRCA, if he is discharged for lawful job-related reasons, if he has knowledge at the place of recruitment that he cannot perform the duties of the job as described above or if he abandons this employment when he is needed by the Grower.

Employer will provide, pay, or reimburse transportation and subsistence under this agreement if the worker is terminated because of work related injury caused by this/these crop activities and is so certified by a doctor acceptable to employer before leaving employers farm, or termination resulting from an Act of God, as outlined in 655.122(o), which makes fulfillment of this contract impossible as provided in paragraph 18C or if the worker is displaced by a U.S. worker under DOL's 50% rule.

Employer will offer free transportation for workers living in employer's housing facility both to and from the daily work site. The use of the transportation by the worker is voluntary; no worker will be required as a condition of employment to utilize the transportation offered by the employer. Workers are free to choose their own means of transportation at their own expense.

For US workers who complete the work contract and are eligible for the outbound transportation benefit, or if the employee is terminated without cause, and the worker has no immediate subsequent H2a employment, or an H2a workers that is displaced due the employers obligation under the USDOL 50% rule, the Employer will provide or pay for the worker's reasonable cost of return transportation and subsistence from the place of employment to the place from which the worker departed to work for the employer, except when the worker will not be returning to the place of recruitment due to subsequent employment with another employer. If the subsequent employer has not agreed to provide or pay for the worker's transportation to the subsequent place of employment, the Employer will provide or pay for the transportation and subsistence to the subsequent place of employment in lieu of providing or paying for such expenses from the place of employment to the place from which the worker departed to work for the employer. If the subsequent employer has agreed to provide or pay for the worker's transportation and subsistence to the subsequent place of employment the Employer will not provide or pay for such expenses. The Employer reserves the right to arrange charter or other return transportation. Workers eligible for this benefit who do not wish to avail themselves of employer arranged return transportation would be provided their outbound transportation and subsistence by check. In those circumstances, the grower will distribute the checks as soon as all work is completed, as determined by the employer, and the worker is ready to depart. Workers may select any means of transportation home they choose, however, the reimbursement is limited to the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation cost for the distance involved. Workers who arrange their own transportation understand they assume all liability and hold harmless the growers/association for any damages, injuries, and personal or property losses.

21. U.S. workers may or may not be covered by unemployment insurance and may or may not be eligible under current unemployment regulations. Workers employed under this job order are designated as seasonal employees.

22. Injuries: Worker will be covered by Worker's Compensation Insurance or equivalent employer provided insurance for injuries arising out of and in the course of employment. Employer assures that there will be no lapse in coverage for workers compensation. The employers workers compensation will be provided throughout the entire length of the contract period Employer's proof of insurance coverage will be provided to the Regional Administrator before certification is granted. All workers must report all injuries and illnesses to their employer. Failure not to do so may result in termination.

23. Employers will provide tools and equipment at no cost for workers to perform the above tasks. Non-mechanical tools and equipment may include ladders, shovels, hoes, tampers, pruning hooks, shears or handsaws. Workers may be terminated for any willful damage to or loss of such tools and equipment.

24. For workers covered by MSPA 29 CFR 500.075(8) there are not any arrangements made with establishment owners or agents for the payment of a commission or other benefits for sales made to the workers.

28. Other Conditions of Employment:

A). Discipline and/or Termination: Employer may discipline and/or terminate the worker for lawful job-related reasons and so notify the Job Service local office of the termination if the worker: a) refuses without justified cause to perform work for which the worker was recruited and hired, b) commit serious act(s) of misconduct or serious or repeated violation(s) of Work Rules. c) fails after completing the training period to perform the work as specified in Item 16 and Attachment, d) malingers or otherwise refuses without justified cause to perform as directed the work for which the Worker was recruited and hired; e) provides other lawful job-related reason(s) for termination of employment, f) abandons his employment; h) falsifies identification, personnel, medical, production or other work related records, i) fails or refuses to take a drug test, or j) commits acts of insubordination, k) the employer may terminate the worker (foreign or domestic) with notification to the employment service if employer discovers a criminal conviction record or status as a registered sex offender that employer reasonably believes, consistent with current law, will impair the safety and living conditions of other workers. Reason beyond employer's control" includes termination of workers, if he not a U.S. worker because a U.S. worker makes himself available for the job under DOL's 50% rule. Workers must notify the employer prior to voluntarily terminating their employment. All wages due will be forwarded to the last known address for Workers that leave without providing notice. It is imperative that workers provide a complete and accurate address to the employer no later than the first day of employment. These employers have a no complete, no rehire policy. Termination for lawful job related reasons before the specified ending date listed in this application will disqualify the employee from future employment opportunities with this employer. Workers who abandon their employment without notice during the period covered by this work agreement will be disqualified from future employment opportunities with this employer. Voluntary resignation before the specified ending date listed in this application may disqualify the employee from future employment opportunities with this employer. For workers who resign their employment voluntarily, the employer will consider and evaluate special circumstances and hardship cases on a case-by-case basis. Employees, without exception, are required to notify appropriate supervisory staff prior to voluntarily terminating their employment to be considered and eligible for exemption to the no complete - no rehire policy.

B). The employer may discipline the worker, including requiring the worker to leave the field ("time out") for a period determined by the foreman, suspension from employment for up to three days, or termination of employment as described in termination (A) above.

C). Employer Obligation if Employment Extended: No extension of employment beyond the Period of Employment specified in the job order shall relieve the Employer from paying the wages already earned, or if specified in the job order as a term of employment, providing return transportation or paying return transportation expenses to the Worker.

D). Employer Notification of Changes in Employment Terms and Conditions: Employers will expeditiously notify the order-holding local office or State agency by email immediately upon learning that a crop is maturing earlier or later, or that weather conditions, over recruitment, or other factors have changed the terms and conditions of employment. The terms of this Work Agreement thereafter may be changed upon posted notice to the Worker.

E). Outreach Workers: Outreach workers shall have reasonable access to the Worker in the conduct of outreach activities pursuant to 20 CFR 653.107 and 20 CFR 653.501.

F). Training: When beginning a crop activity for the first time, the employer will provide instructions and/or training (up to 1 hour) in the proper way to perform the crop activity. Thereafter the worker will be expected to perform the task with diligence as instructed. By the beginning of the second working day (7 hours of work completed), workers in all activities will be expected, not to adversely affect the productivity of the others workers, and to perform the work in a manner specified by the employer and described herein. After the one-day (7 hour) training and acclimation period, workers who fail to meet this standard and/or who fail to perform the work in the manner specified may be terminated.

G). Work Agreement: A copy of the contract or Job Clearance Order and work rules (copy attached) will be provided to the worker by the employer no later than on the day the time at which the worker applies for the visa (for foreign workers), or to a worker in corresponding employment no later than on the day that work begins.

H). Employer agrees to abide by the regulations at 20 CFR 655.135.

I). The employer as a part of positive recruitment as per 20 CFR 655.154 is willing, if and when any substantial number of applicants are available, to coordinate group transportation arrangements (to facilitate their purchase of bus tickets etc.), where appropriate, and to provide any additional information that workers need to coordinate their arrival.

J) We are an equal opportunity employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply to these positions.

K). SUBSTANCE ABUSE POLICY: This employer will strive to provide a safe and healthful work environment, free of substance abuse, for the protection of our associates, employees and visitors. The use, possession or being under the influence of illegal drugs or alcohol during working time is prohibited. (Alcohol may be permitted in the housing facility outside work hours.) Employees may also be requested to take random drug tests at no cost to the worker. Workers are subject to random drug testing effective their first date of work. Failure to comply with the request or testing positive will result in immediate termination.

L). Pursuant to 20 CFR 655.135(i)(1), each employee that enters the United States with an H-2A temporary work visa must return at the end of the period listed in this contract and certified by the U.S. Department of Labor or upon separation from the employer, whichever is earlier, unless the employee is being sponsored by another subsequent H-2A employer.

M) Grievance Policy: If any area of your work is causing you concern, you have the responsibility to address your concern with your immediate supervisor. Most problems can and should be solved in discussion with your immediate supervisor; if after these attempts there is no satisfactory resolution, you should bring your concerns to upper management.

This employer strongly urges the reporting of all incidents of discrimination, harassment or retaliation, regardless of the offender's identity or position. Individuals who believe they have experienced any of these or who have concerns about such matters should file their complaints before the conduct becomes severe or pervasive. Individuals should not feel obligated to file their complaints with their immediate supervisor first before bringing the matter to the attention of upper management. Our goal is to have a work environment where we all treat each other respectfully and professionally. Any unprofessional or disrespectful behavior, even if not illegal, that interferes with that goal and will not be tolerated. The employer reserves the right to respond to inappropriate behavior even where no one has complained or indicated they have been offended

N) The employer committed to providing a safe, flexible and respectful environment for employees, staff, clients, or anyone you come into contact with on company business, free from all forms of sexual harassment. Any type of sexual harassment is grounds for immediate termination. Sexual harassment is a specific and serious form of harassment. It is defined as: unwelcome sexual behaviour, which could be expected to make a person feel offended, humiliated or intimidated. Sexual harassment can be physical, spoken or written. It can include: a) comments about a person's private life or the way they look, b) sexually suggestive behaviour, such as leering or staring, c) brushing up against someone, touching, fondling or hugging, d) sexually suggestive comments or jokes e) displaying offensive screen savers, photos, calendars or objects, f) repeated requests to go out, g) requests for sex, h) sexually explicit emails, text messages or posts on social networking sites.

Just because someone does not object to inappropriate behaviour in the workplace at the time, it does not mean that they are consenting to the behaviour.

Sexual harassment is covered in the workplace when it happens at work, at work-related events, between people sharing the same workplace, or between colleagues outside of work.

29. Cell phone or individual entertainment devices (Ipods, ect) are not allowed during working times. Workers may use these devices on their lunch break and other employer approved times..

NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL CONSULTANTS LLC

H-2A CONSULTING SERVICES, AGENCY REPRESENTATION AND INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

This H-2A Consulting Services, Agency Representation and Indemnification Agreement (the "Agreement") entered into by and between National Agricultural Consultants LLC (the "Agent/Consultant"), an agricultural labor consultant and Agent with an expertise in the H-2A Governing Regulations at 20 CFR § 655 in its entirety and the U.S. DOL ESA Wage and Hour H-2A enforcement regulations at 29 CFR § 501, in the state of and under the laws of North Carolina and R.M. Zingler Jr. (Grower Name) a fixed site agricultural producer(s)/employer(s), by definition at 20 CFR 655.103(b) in the state of New York (Grower State)(the "Agricultural Employer, 'AGER' ") who is a client of the Agent/Consultant.

WHEREAS, the Agent/Consultant is qualified and capable as an Agent/Consultant of rendering agent and consulting services, certain specific administrative services, and other limited services (necessary to assist facilitation of the AGER in obtaining domestic and/or supplementary foreign workers to participate in the H-2A program (8 USC 1101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a); 8 USC 1188) ("H-2A workers") to meet the AGER's seasonal agricultural labor requirements; and

WHEREAS, the AGER acknowledges, understands and agrees that it is personally and solely responsible for compliance with all applicable farm employee labor and employment laws and provisions of the H-2A program, including the Application for Temporary Employment Certification, the Clearance Order, and the Worker Agreement; and

WHEREAS, the AGER desires to avail themselves of the Agent and Consulting services, administrative services, and other limited services provided by the Agent/Consultant in order to secure domestic and/or supplementary foreign workers to meet the AGER's seasonal agricultural labor requirements for the calendar year beginning January 1, 2016;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the payment(s) made by the AGER of the established dues, admission fees and other assessments and such costs as are charged/assessed from time to time for providing the services requested by the AGER, and for other good and sufficient consideration, including the mutual promises contained in this Agreement, pursuant to the applicable requirements of 20 CFR § 655. The Agent/Consultant will provide Agent and Consultative services to represent, prepare and/or assist the AGER, as necessary, to interact with all appropriate government agencies involved in the H-2A program application processes, including but not limited to US Department of Labor ("DOL"), US Department of Homeland Security ("DHS"), US State Department("DOS"), and the respective State Workforce Agency(s) ("SWA"). The parties hereto further agree as follows:

A. The Consultant's Obligations

(1) The Agent/Consultant, with input and review from AGER, will prepare and submit to the AGER to review, modify, approve, and/or execute, and authorize submission to the applicable government agency for processing, all forms and documents, required, pursuant to applicable laws and DOL, DHS, and State Department regulations, to obtain US workers and/or H-2A workers from the Republic of Mexico. The AGER provides explicit authorization to Consultant to prepare all necessary forms and documents, with emphasis added, for the Consultant to populate and prepare the I-129 petition on behalf of the AGER who will then review, modify, approve, execute and submit, or authorize submission, to U.S. CIS per the petition filing instructions.

(2) The Consultant, on behalf of the AGER, will provide certain administrative supportive services associated with the domestic recruitment requirements established by DOL regulations. Such tasks shall be limited exclusively to: preparing the ETA 790 Form and attachments, subject to review, modification, approval, and execution by the AGER, and to be submitted by the AGER, or authorize Agent/Consultant to submit, in order to list the domestic job order with the appropriate State Workforce Agency ("SWA"), preparing ad copy for the AGER to review, modify and authorize the Agent/Consultant to place advertisements in newspapers on behalf of the AGER as directed by DOL, providing certain supportive services to AGER when/if needed by AGER to prepare AGER to properly interview and document US referrals made directly to the AGER from a SWA, and preparing and submitting to AGER for review, approval, execution and submitting, or authorization for Agent/Consultant to submit, the necessary recruitment report with DOL. The AGER agrees that it, solely, is soliciting employees as required by the Federal Regulation and the AGER has reviewed the required ad and approved the content before Agent/Consultant submits it to the newspaper for print on behalf of AGER. The AGER and DOL determine, solely and exclusively, the terms and conditions disclosed in the ad, when and where it is placed. By preparing ad copy for AGER consideration and authorization, the Agent/Consultant IS NOT performing or engaging in MSPA related Farm Labor Contracting activities such as soliciting. I, the AGER, am exclusively soliciting employees for myself as required by Federal law.

(3) The Agent/Consultant will maintain, or, assist the AGER to maintain contacts that may be needed, from time to time, by the Agent/Consultant or AGER, either directly or through its designated representatives, with SWA's, DOL, DHS, and DOS; and, other state and federal governmental agencies, and government contractors acting on behalf of or performing administrative actions on behalf of government agencies necessary to effectuate the successful administrative participation in the H-2A program and for other purpose(s) described in this Agreement.

(4) The Agent/Consultant has not sought or received payment of any kind from any employee subject to 8 USC 1188 for any activity related to obtaining the H-2A labor certification in compliance with 20 CFR § 655.135(j).

(5) The Agent/Consultant, who IS NOT an attorney and is not providing legal advice to the AGER, MAY, under the limited terms of this agreement, act as the agent of the employer, with any government or private entity, as necessary, to assist the employer with participating in the H-2A program. This document IS NOT, nor should it be construed, as a Power of Attorney, limited or otherwise. The AGER acknowledges understanding and agreement that they should always consult with a qualified attorney to have all of their legal questions answered, if any.

B. The Agricultural Employer's Obligations

(1) The AGER agrees to comply timely with all reasonable policies, procedures, and schedules established by the Agent/Consultant which it considers essential for the proper operation of the program to obtain domestic workers and/or H-2A workers, successful participation, and to promote compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

(2) The AGER acknowledges that it is familiar with the regulations and requirements of the H-2A program and agrees to comply with all of the terms and conditions of employment described in the AGER's Agricultural and Food Processing Clearance Order, ETA Form 790 and attachments, and Application for Temporary Employment Certification, ETA 9142 and attachments, (collectively the "Job Order") and with the agricultural work agreement, which describes all the material terms and conditions of employment and that is entered into with both U.S. and H-2A workers by the AGER. The AGER agrees to comply with all obligations imposed on the AGER as an employer of domestic and/or H-2A workers found in applicable law and regulations, including without limitation, those at 20 CFR Part 653 (DOL Interstate Clearance Order regulations); 20 CFR Part 655 (DOL H-2A Regulations); 29 CFR Part 501 (DOL Wage and Hour Enforcement Regulations); and applicable provisions at 8 CFR Parts 214, 215, and 274a (DHS regulations); and to always cooperate with all government agencies with jurisdiction. The AGER agrees to comply with ALL applicable laws and relevant regulations and specifically, but not limited to, 20 C.F.R. 655.120(wages), 122(content of job offer), 135(assurances and obligations), 153(contact former US workers), 155(referral of US workers), 167(document retention requirements) of the H-2A regulations.

(3) In particular, but not limiting the foregoing, the AGER agrees a) to pay their worker's required wages and benefits; b) to make only those deductions from their worker's paychecks that are required by law and only those deductions allowed by law; c) to provide housing as required by law that meets all applicable standards in effect at the time of occupancy; d) to timely reimburse required transportation and daily subsistence costs; e) to provide written detailed wage statements of their worker's total earnings, start time and stop time, nature of work each day, hourly rate and/or piece rate of pay, the hours of employment which had been offered to their worker, the hours actually worked by their worker, and itemization of all deductions made from their worker's wages and, if piece rates are used, the units produced daily, the AGER's name, address and Federal Tax Identification or Social Security Number; f) to terminate their worker only for lawful job related reasons; g) to secure and maintain workers' compensation coverage for each worker for the entire period of employment, with no lapses in coverage; h) to employ any qualified US worker(s), or, to interview and hire any qualified US worker(s) who applies directly to the AGER in accordance with the applicable regulations at 20 CFR 655; i) that the Agent/Consultant and the AGER are not and shall not be joint employers with respect to any of the AGER's employees. The Agent/Consultant does not exercise any control over any of the AGER's employees and does not hold any indicia of employment with respect to the AGER's employees. The AGER is the sole and exclusive employer. The AGER acknowledges that it is the employer solely and that NAC is not a joint employer.

(4) The AGER agrees to pay timely any judgment or penalty entered against the AGER and arising out of the AGER's violation of its obligations under applicable law or regulation, and to indemnify and hold harmless the Agent/Consultant and any of its other AGER Clients for such judgments or penalties and any attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Agent/Consultant or other AGER Clients in defending against such alleged violation. The AGER acknowledges that the laws and regulations governing the employment of domestic agricultural workers and H-2A workers are subject to disputed and differing legal interpretations in various jurisdictions. Therefore, the AGER agrees that in matters in which a claim is made or litigation is instituted against the Agent/Consultant, the Agent/Consultant may exercise its discretion a) to settle such matters on behalf of the Agent/Consultant and the AGER on terms it deems appropriate; b) to litigate such matters; and c) to determine whether such settlements, judgments, penalties, costs and attorneys fees will be borne by the AGER out of whose alleged action or inaction the claim was based or, what amount, if any, will be borne by the Agent/Consultant and/or shared among its other AGER Clients. The terms of this Paragraph B. (4) survive any future separation from AGER and the Agent/Consultant by the AGER and the term of this Agreement.

(5) The AGER agrees to pay the Agent/Consultant any assessment levied by the Agent/Consultant as the AGER's share of legal and any other expense or liability incurred by the Agent/Consultant in defending, prosecuting or settling any dispute relating to an application for H-2A certification, claim, litigation, or administrative complaint or appeal, whether or not arising out of claims against the AGER or arising out of the fault of the AGER, in accordance with a formula approved by the Agent/Consultant. The terms of this paragraph B. (5) survive any future separation from AGER and the Consultant by the AGER and the term of this Agreement.
