2019 DEC 9 PM 12 56

20 CFR 653.501
Assurances

INTRASTATE AND INTERSTATE CLEARANCE ORDER

The employer agrees to provide to workers referred through the clearance system the number of hours of work per week cited in Item 10 of the clearance order for the week beginning with the anticipated date of need, unless the employer has amended the date of need at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need by so notifying the Order-Holding Office (OHO). If the employer fails to notify the OHO at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need, the employer shall pay eligible workers referred through the intrastate/interstate clearance system the specified hourly rate or pay, or in the absence of a specified hourly rate or pay, the higher of the Federal or State minimum wage rate for the first week starting with the original anticipated date of need. The employer may require workers to perform alternative work if the guarantee is invoked and if such alternative work is stated on the job order.

The employer agrees that no extension of employment beyond the period of employment shown on the job order will relieve the employer from paying the wages already earned, or specified in the job order as a term of employment, providing transportation or paying transportation expenses to the worker's home.

The employer assures that all working conditions comply with applicable Federal and State minimum wage, child labor, social security, health and safety, farm labor contractor registration and other employment-related laws.

The employer agrees to expeditiously notify the OHO or State agency by telephone immediately upon learning that a crop is maturing earlier or later, or that weather conditions, over recruitment, or other factors have changed the terms and conditions of employment.

The employer, if acting as a farm labor contractor, has a valid farm labor contractor registration certificate.

The employer assures the availability of no cost or public housing which meets applicable Federal and State standards and which is sufficient to house the specified number of workers requested through the clearance system.

The employer also assures that outreach workers shall have reasonable access to the workers in the conduct of outreach activities pursuant to 20 CFR 653.107.

ITEM 10-Job Specifications

Tools and Equipment:

The employer will furnish, without charge, all tools, supplies, and equipment required in the performance of the specified work. Workers will be charged for any willful damage or loss of such tools and equipment.

Workers will care for horses to protect their health and improve their appearance; will water animals and measure, mix and apportion feed and feed supplements according to the feeding instructions. These workers will also wash, brush and trim animals' coats to clean and improve their appearance.

The worker(s) understand that if he, she, or they abandon employment or are terminated for cause prior to the end of the period of employment shown in item five (5) he, she or they will forfeit the $\frac{3}{4}$ guarantee and reimbursement of certain transportation costs described elsewhere in this job order. Excessive absences and/or tardiness, as defined in the work rules attached hereto, cannot be tolerated and may result in termination. Abandonment is defined as five (5) consecutive schedule working days of unexcused absence.

Alternative Work:

This could include maintenance of tools and equipment, farm maintenance and other work that is directly related the activities for which the workers were hired. Such work will be offered when climate or conditions preclude working in the primary activities stated above. Alternative work may only be required if the first week wage guarantee listed in 20 CFR 653.501 is invoked.

General Conditions:

Workers will begin at an assigned time, 8:00 am and continue until 3:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. If work is available beyond normal workdays the employer may offer, but not require, the worker the opportunity to work additional hours. Work is performed during light rain and in high humidity and in temperatures ranging from 100 degrees to 35 degrees F. Workers will work on their feet in bent positions for long periods of time. Workers will supply their own work clothes. All tasks in this Job Description constitute one (1) job; the employer may assign workers to different tasks on any day or to multiple tasks during the same day in the sole judgment of the employer. Workers may be required to perform work on the farm that is incidental to the job listed in the application, such as cleaning animals' quarters, farm maintenance and repairs replenishing bedding, exercising animals, and unloading and storing feed and supplies. Workers may whitewash stables using brushes and may clean saddles and bridles. Workers may also saddle horses. All other duties assigned under this order will be those duties of a Stable Attendant, DOT Code 410.674-022.

This is a very demanding and competitive business in which quality specifications must be rigorously adhered to. Sloppy work cannot and will not be tolerated.

ITEM 11-Wage Rates—Pay Information & Deductions

The prevailing wage rate for Pennsylvania or Adverse Effect Wage Rate (AEWR) whichever is higher is guaranteed as a minimum for all work contained in this order and will comply with the full 2010 wage guarantee 20CFR655.120(a). The employer will offer a wage rate that is the highest of the AEWR, the prevailing hourly wage or piece rate, the agreed upon collective bargaining agreement wage, or the Federal or State minimum wage. In the event of a change in the H-2A wage methodology, employer will pay the highest required wage rate at the time of the job performance.

The employer will make the following deductions:

Taxes applicable under Federal, State, and Local laws, advances (), meals (), willful destruction of property (X), other () specify:

Reasonable repair and cost of damage, other than that which is caused by normal wear and tear may be deducted from wages of workers to be found responsible for damage to housing and furnishing. Workers will be charged for any willful damage to or loss of such tools and equipment.

The employer will furnish the worker, on or before each payday, written statements showing, at a minimum, the hours actually worked, total earnings, and all deductions for the pay period. The statements will comply with 20 CFR 655.122(j), 655.122(K), 655.122(l), 655.122(m).

Tax deductions will be made on U.S. workers only. The total wages offered by employer for the first week of work will be $387.10. If Overtime required pay rate is $16.59 per hr. Workers will be paid the highest wage rate for Pennsylvania or Adverse Effect Wage Rate at the time of the job performance

Workers will be paid once by-weekly week on Friday.

The employer guarantees to offer the worker employment for at least three-fourths (3/4) of the total hours listed in Item 10, excluding Federal holidays, beginning with the first workday after the arrival of the worker at the place of employment and continuing through the ending date listed three-fourths (3/4) of the hours during the employment period and any extensions. The ¾ guarantee will be abide by the regulations set forth at 20CFR 655.122(i)(1). The employer shall pay the worker the amount that the worker would have earned had the worker in fact, worked the guaranteed number of hours.

If before the work ending date specified in Item 9, the services of the worker are no longer needed for reasons beyond the control of the employer due to fire, flood, hail, frost, drought, or other Acts of God which makes the fulfillment of the employment period impossible, the employer may terminate the employment. In the event of such termination the three-fourths (3/4) guarantee will end on the date of termination. In such cases, the employer will make efforts to cover the cost of transportation and subsistence to the job regardless of whether fifty percent (50%) of the contract has expired. If no suitable and comparable work can be arranged, the employer will pay the cost of transportation and subsistence to return the worker to the place of recruitment.

LABOR & INDUSTRY

The three-fourths (3/4) guarantee shall be void if the worker voluntarily abandons the employment before the employment period ends or if the worker is terminated for cause.

The employer will offer the worker, referred through the Agricultural Recruitment System, thirty-five (35) hours of work at the prevailing wage rate or AEW, whichever notices the order holding office of the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry of a change in the anticipated date of need at least 10 working days prior to the date of need. If the employer fails to notify the order holding office, the eligible worker will be paid the specified rate, or hourly piece rate guarantee, for the first full week's services without regard to the actual hours worked or activity which the worker was employed for the week. A worker who fails to notice the nearest Job Service office no sooner than nine (9) working days and no later than five (5) working days prior to the anticipated date of need of their intentions to fill the job for which they were recruited, will be disqualified from the first week's wage guarantee stated above.

The employer may offer (but not require alternative work during the employment period.) Alternative work may only be required if the first week wage guarantee list in 20 CFR 653.501 is invoked.

The employer will provide worker's compensation insurance, at no cost to the worker, covering injury and disease arising out of, and in the course of, the worker's employment.

ITEM 12 – Transportation

The employer will agree to reimburse the worker for the reasonable cost of transportation and subsistence, as required in 20 CFR 655.122(h)(1), from the worker's place of recruitment to the place of employment once the worker has completed fifty percent (50%) of employment stated in Item 5. The employer will provide or pay the cost of return transportation and subsistence to the place of recruitment, except when the worker is not returning to the place of recruitment and is going to subsequent employment with an employer who is providing transportation to that job. If a subsequent employer is not bearing the cost of transportation then the employer listed in Item 4 agrees to pay for that transportation.

Travel and subsistence must be paid by employer. Employer is required to reimburse workers for their transportation and subsistence expenses in the amount of $34.50 per diem as the minimum amount if the worker is unable to provide receipts and $46.00 as the maximum amount if the worker is able to provide receipt. Daily transportation from the housing site to the work site will be provided by the employer at no cost to the workers.

OTHER CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Workers must possess sufficient documentation required for the employer to complete the employment eligibility verification requirement of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.

INVOLUNTARY TERMINATION

The employer may terminate the worker for lawful, job related reasons. In the event of such termination the employer will notify the local office of the Department of Employment Services immediately by phone and follow such notification in writing and will notify the DOL, USCIS and the issuing consulate.

MEDICAL TERMINATION

In the event of termination of a worker for medical reasons occurring after the worker has been employed or occurring as a result of employment, the employer agrees to pay transportation and subsistence costs for the worker's travel to the place of employment and their return to the place of recruitment.

EXTENSIONS OF THE JOB ORDER

No extensions of this order will relieve the employer of his/her obligations to pay wages that have already been earned, transportation costs that have already been, or shall be, incurred or guarantees stated in this order.

OUTREACH WORKERS

The employer will allow outreach workers of the Department for Employment Service, reasonable access to all workers employed under this order pursuant to 20 CFR 653.107 and 20 CFR 653.501.

EMPLOYER NOTIFICATION OF THE EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

The employer will expeditiously notify the local office of the Department of Employment Service in writing of any changes in the terms and conditions or anticipated dates of need in this order.

ASSURANCES

The employer agrees to abide by the regulations at 20 CFR 655.135, Assurances and 20 CFR 653.501.

EFFORTS TO RECRUIT U.S. WORKERS AND THE RESULTS

The employer agrees to advertise the job opportunities in the local newspaper. The employer also agrees to contact local feed mills and temporary help agencies to locate adequate help before bringing in migrant workers. The employer agrees to interview any interested and available applicant from such provided lists. The employer also agrees to recruit by the usual word of mouth. The employer will contact the local extension service, the farming agencies, farm worker service organizations and farm work advocacy groups, such as Kentucky Farm workers Program, in the region for potential workers.

Employer agrees to interview all interested U.S. workers referred by the State Employment Service and all interested applicants who apply directly.
